QURBAANI

A DIVINE FEAST FOR THE BELIEVERS

Qurbaani, the sacrifice of animals in the name of Allah Ta'ala, is an everlasting memorial and remembrance.

Furthermore, Rasulullah (Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam) has emphatically encouraged it through his actions.

"Sacrifice animals in the name of Allah because it was the practice of your forefather Nabi Ibrahim Allah."

In another narration Hadhrat Aisha (Radhiallahu Anha) reports that Rasulullah (Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam) said:

"on the Day of Eid-ul-Adha there is no action more beloved to Allah Ta'ala than that of Qurbaani. The person who performs it, his sins are forgiven."

Hadhrat Zaid bin Arqam (Radhiallahu Anha) reports that once the companions of Rasulullah (Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam) were asked:

"O Rasul of Allah! What is this Qurbaani?" Rasulullah (Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam) replied: "It is the practice of your forefather Ibrahim."

From the above mentioned virtues, it is very clear that Qurbaani is an eminent and important act of virtue.

The correct method of performing Qurbani as mentioned in the Ahaadeeth is as follows:

- It is preferable to make the animal lie down in such a manner that its face is towards the Qiblah. There should be no harm in this.

• Then the animal should be slaughtered in the name of Allah Ta'ala. The animal should be slaughtered in the name of Allah Ta'ala.

A few important guidelines pertaining to Qurbaani:

- It is preferable that the animal should be big in size, fat and good looking because it will be a means of
- It is also preferable to slaughter on the first day of Qurbaani which is the 10th of Dhul Hijjah, the Day of
- Eminent Fugahaa (scholars) have written that it is preferable to slaughter during the day, while slaught
- Special care should be taken that before slaughtering, the knife should be thoroughly sharpened.
- It is more virtuous to wait a little while after the actual slaughtering so that the animal may calm down,
- A person should partake from his/her own Qurbaani because it is an invitation from Allah that must not

Qurbaani is not merely a custom or an ordinary action that should be disregarded or rejected. However

This is so because Rasulullah (Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam) has expressed denunciation for that person

"The person, who despite having the means does not slaughter, must not even come close to our Eidg

In conclusion, the fundamental purpose of Qurbaani is to obey the commandment of Allah Ta'ala with to
