Why this oppression?

At this moment we are protesting against the persecution and oppression of the British colonial power in India.

Did not Rasulallah (Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam) warn us about this? Did he not in very clear terms explain that the British would oppress the Muslims?

May my soul, my father and my mother be sacrificed for him!! Never is it possible that there can be any compromise with the British.

He said:

“As you are (as far as your actions are) so will be the rulers that will soon be set over you.” (Mishkhat)

Therefore if we desire the best (and most just) government to rule over us, there will be only one way of achieving it.

In a second Hadeeth it is reported: Abu Darda (Radiallahu anhu) reports that Rasulallah (Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam) said:

“Allah says: I am Allah besides whom there is no Deity, the Master of Kings, King of Kings. Verily I will turn the hearts of the kings to whom I will, and I will turn the hearts of the kings to whom I will, and I will turn the hearts of the kings to whom I will.”

And when My servants disobey Me, I turn the hearts of kings and rulers to treat them harshly, with severity.

Malik bin Maghool says: “I have read a verse similar to this in the Zaboor of Nabi Dawood (Alayhis Salaam).”

Similar guidance is also given in many similar Ahaadeeth. Among the masnoon duaas to be recited is the following:

“O Allah, do not because of our sins place in authority to rule over us such as will not show any mercy to us.”

In the Holy Quran Allah says:

“And so We let some of the evil doers have authority over others because of that which they earn

There are various explanations given by the Commentators (Mufasssireen) on this verse. Jalalain (Rahim

They then inquired: “And what is the sign of Your being displeased with people?”

Allah replied: “The sign is that at the time of sowing the fields I withhold the rains and at the time
