

Question: What is the ruling if a talaq is issued with the words "OUR MARRIGE IS OVER"?

Answer: If a talaq is issued with the words "OUR MARRIGE IS OVER" this would fall under Kinaayaat [indirect words of talaq]. If these words were uttered with the intention of talaq then one talaq raj'ee [revocable talaq] will fall.

If a few talaqs were issued in this way without the intention of emphasis but rather with intention of each being a separate talaq then three talaqs will fall.

The period of iddat will be three haidh ie. The iddat period will terminate at the end of the third haidh.
