Why the decline and fall of non-believers

But how is it that we still see the non-believers also facing decline and destruction?

This is because of their injustices, tyranny and oppression and comes about when immorality and promiscuity are rampant.

Thus you will see that all the stories of the previous nations who were destroyed were involved in one or more of these factors.

Hence Allah is reported to say (the Holy Quran) any unjustly oppressed victim even if he be an infidel, we will surely help him.

And so one should understand that when any ruler, minister of state, governor, official or leader or anyone in authority is involved in such actions, he is working for his own destruction.

He is in fact working for the fall and destruction of his own people with his own hands, whether the injustice is direct or indirect.

At this stage -much as I would have liked to go into detail, there is no space for further detail. There is insufficient space here to elaborate on the various causes of the decline and fall of nations.

The gist of what I try to explain is that Allah -The Most Gracious, the Most Merciful (the Causer of causes) had created the world for the benefit of mankind.

To have such views shows ignorance of our Deen and lack of knowledge of the words of Allah and His Messenger.
