Once a Muslim army had to set up camp in one of the wild jungles of Africa (North). This jungle was filled with
"O you creatures living in the earth and you wild animals. We are the Companions of Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam)
As this announcement was made, it was as if a bolt of lightning had travelled among the wild beasts and birds.
It was probably against the Roman Emperor of Byzantium or in some other battle that Sayyidina Safina (Radiallahu anhu) was
The lion wagged its tail and accompanied him like a domesticated dog. Whenever any danger lurked ahead of him, the lion
On the expedition into Persia an attack was planned on Madain (Ctesiphon). The Muslims had to cross the sea.
Sayyidina Saad (Radiallahu anhu) the Muslim commander gave the order to lead their horses into the flood.
"I swear by Allah. Allah will surely help His friends and make His Deen dominant, and defeat his enemy."
At the time of the campaign against the murtads (renegades), Sayyidina Abu Bakr (Radiallahu anhu) sent a message to the
"O Most Clement One, O Thou All-Knower, Most High, Most Great, Quench Thou our thirst."
A very ordinary looking cloud appeared and it began to rain immediately, with such force that all could hear it from
After this they set forth and discovered that the murtads had gone to take refuge at Darben. In order to reach them,
Sayyidina Alaa (Radiallahu anhu) went onto the beach, and performed two rakaahs Salaah and again pronounced:
*O Most Clement One O Thou All-Knower, Most High, Most Great
Make us cross the sea!"*

Hazrat Abu Hurayrah (Radiallahu anhu) says: "We walked on the water. By Allah, our feet did not even

Some historians say that the water withdrew and only the feet of the camels and horses became wet. (

Afif bin Munzir (Radiallahu anhu) also took part in this battle and in some lines of poetry he referred to the

*"See you not how Allah made the sea obedient to His Will See you not what calamity He sent on the infidel
We called on Him who for the Israelites the sea made still,
And greater was His help to us then to Bani Israel." (Khamees)*
