Subservience of Animals to the Saints of Allah and Fruits of Obediance.

Once Sayyidina Saad (Radiallahu anhu) appointed Sayyidina Asim bin Amr (Radiallahu anhu) the commat the edge of the woods they met a Persian cowherd. They inquired from him whether there was a posume "He lies. This enemy of Allah! We are here!"

Hence stories of the lives of the Sahabah (Radiallahu anhuma) and the saints have reached us in mos

Hearing this voice, Sayyidina Asim (Radiallahu anhu) entered the woods, brought out the animals and During the time of Hajjaaj bin Yusuf this story was told to him. He was quite amazed. He then called so They replied: "The people took this incident as proof that Allah was pleased with the Muslims and that we Hajjaaj repiied: "That would only be the case if all the soldiers in the army had been Allah-fearing and replied: "That would only be the case if all the soldiers in the army had been Allah-fearing and replied: "That would only be the case if all the soldiers in the army had been Allah-fearing and replied: "That would only be the case if all the soldiers in the army had been Allah-fearing and replied: "That would only be the case if all the soldiers in the army had been Allah-fearing and replied: "That would only be the case if all the soldiers in the army had been Allah-fearing and replied: "That would only be the case if all the soldiers in the army had been Allah-fearing and replied: "That would only be the case if all the soldiers in the army had been Allah-fearing and replied: "That would only be the case if all the soldiers in the army had been Allah-fearing and replied: "That would only be the case if all the soldiers in the army had been Allah-fearing and replied: "That would only be the case if all the soldiers in the army had been Allah-fearing and replied: "That would only be the case if all the soldiers in the army had been Allah-fearing and replied: "That would only be the case if all the soldiers in the army had been Allah-fearing and replied: "That would only be the case if all the soldiers in the army had been Allah-fearing and replied: "That would only be the case if all the soldiers in the army had been Allah-fearing and replied: "That would only be the case if all the soldiers in the army had been Allah-fearing and replied: "That would only be the case if all the soldiers in the army had been Allah-fearing and replied: "That would only be the case if all the soldiers in the army had been
